Is the Memorial Fund Campaign Going to Fail?

Our records show that only 1770 of the 5500 men and women who have attended the University of Maine have subscribed to the Memorial Fund. To reach our alumni goal of $500,000 the other 3730 must become subscribers.

At the start of the campaign we announced that solicitation would be made by field workers. Over 600 field workers were organized into groups in the 43 areas. Since then reports reaching the Memorial Fund office indicate that at least half of the 600 have not taken their part in the campaign seriously. Those 300 hold the key to the success or failure of the campaign. They have procrastinated—they've neglected the job assigned to them.

While all this has been going on we've watched the work of our loyal regional chairmen. In some instances a regional chairman alone has solicited 75% of the subscriptions turned in from his area.

The Memorial Fund Committee and the regional chairmen cannot do the job without assistance. Other alumni and former students must help. YOU must help.

Maine men and women are giving. Read the list of Bricklayers and be convinced. There are hundreds of others who are ready to subscribe. Few alumni interviewed have turned down a field worker.

If you are one of those who haven't subscribed, a worker will eventually reach you. However, the longer the campaign drags along the more the overhead cost will be. To keep this cost at the minimum we ask you to subscribe without waiting for the solicitor.

WHATEVER your "Choice of a Career", college training has increased your economic value. In any business or profession, adequate life insurance is a proper self-appraisal of value to the State, the family and yourself. The traditions, practices and financial strength of the John Hancock Life Insurance Company are such that you can take genuine pride in a John Hancock policy on your life. It is a distinct asset.

Should you desire to go into a satisfactory business for yourself—to build your own business with the aid of a strong organization, to secure substantial remuneration in return for hard, intelligent work—then it will pay you to sell John Hancock Insurance.

We invite inquiry from you regarding a possible career or an adequate John Hancock policy on your life.
